WEIHE TELLS OF THE STATE JACK-POT FUND

Washington, July 18.—Three witnesses were heard by the senate committee which is investigating charges of corruption in the election of Senator Lorimer of Illinois. They were William M. Burgess and Henry Turish of Duluth, and Herman H. Heitler of Chicago.

The testimony of Mr. Burgess was the most important. He related a conversation which he said he had with Christian F. Weihe, secretary of the Edward Hines Lumber company of Chicago, on a train enroute from Duluth to Virginia, Minn., on March 6 last, in which Mr. Weihe is alleged to have said to know that a jack-pot fund of $100,000 had been raised to elect Senator Lorimer, because he (Weihe) had contributed $10,000 to the fund. Mr. Weihe is a brother-in-law of Edward Hines, who is charged with soliciting contributions to the alleged $100,000 Lorimer fund.

"Mr. Weihe told me," said Mr. Burgess, "that Senator Lorimer had not spent any of his own money, but there was a jack-pot of $100,000 raised. Mr. Weihe said he knew what he was talking about because he contributed $10,000."

According to Mr. Burgess, Mr. Weihe also told him of a private detective employed by a Chicago agency to get evidence against Senator Lorimer.

"What did Mr. Weihe tell you about the Illinois legislature?" asked Mr. Healey.

"He said that it was impossible to get legislation through the Illinois legislature without the use of money," the witness replied.

Mr. Turish, who is in the lumber business at Duluth, testified to a conversation in the lobby of the Grand Pacific hotel in Chicago, in 1909, between himself and Edward Hines, and Wirt H. Cook, a Duluth lumberman. Mr. Turish said Mr. Hines discussed the lumber tariff in the Payne-Aldrich law then pending in congress. Mr. Turish could not corroborate the testimony of Mr. Cook, who said that Mr. Hines referred to Senator Isaac Stephenson as "old Stephenson."

Mr. Heitler, a Chicago lumber dealer and a competitor of the Hines Lumber company, related a conversation at the Union League club in Chicago on May 26, 1909, with Hines, in which Hines boasted of bringing about the election of Lorimer.

The Weather

Increasing cloudiness followed by showers late tonight or Wednesday. Slightly cooler in north and west portions. Temperature at noon, 78.

ANNUAL EPWORTH LEAGUE ASSEMBLY JULY 20 TO AUG. 27

Ludington, July 18.—The annual Epworth assembly will take place at Ludington from July 20 to August 27. The Ben Greet players will appear on the program, together with many other notable lecturers, singers, and entertainers.

REV. MOORE PREACHES LAST SERMON AT FRIENDS' CHURCH

The Sunday morning service at Friends' church was sad and impressive. The occasion was the farewell of the pastor, Rev. Howard and Mrs. Moore. They are leaving for a larger field. Mr. Moore is superintendent of Adirondack Quarterly Meeting of Friends' church and Mrs. Moore is a minister of the Gospel so the congregation has been especially favored during the past two years.

Mrs. Moore read a part of the 21st chapter of Revelations in a very impressive manner and gave a wonderful touching talk on the same. Mr. Willis Derbyshire sang a solo in his own happy manner. The pastor, Rev. Howard Moore, preached from the Story of Esther, taking for a special application the 14th verse of the 4th chapter and the memory of his exhortation will linger for months. He showed our duty to the unsaved about us and drew a parallel between that and Esther's duty to her people in her time. Following a most impressive sermon Mr. and Mrs. Moore sang a duet. Mrs. Rhoda Derbyshire read an original poem of farewell and voiced the thought of the congregation in their loss. Mr. and Mrs. Moore will be greatly missed in the church and community.

ARRESTED FOR SLANDER, PAYS $5.45 COSTS AND SENTENCE IS SUSPENDED

Nick Rovegna of Ann Arbor was arrested Monday night by Ypsilanti officers on a charge of slander. The complaint was made by Michael Basso of Detroit. Rovegna was arraigned before Justice Stadtmiller late Monday afternoon. He pleaded guilty and was allowed to go on payment of costs, $5.45.

Basso claimed that Rovegna made slanderous remarks about his father-in-law, Mr. Shippicassee, of Detroit, some time recently while in Ypsilanti.

ANOTHER PLEA FOR PROTECTION FROM DUST DANGER

(Communication)
Why should Ypsilanti not take measures to have its streets sprinkled regularly?

I remember when coming to the city of Ypsilanti about eleven years ago the very unfavorable impression I received on account of the excessively dusty streets and the coat of ground-up clay and sand which covered the adjoining lawns. After having lived here ten years I have become somewhat adjusted to the new condition, but during the present dry spell my mind has again reverted to the fact of the condition eleven years ago and how little the city has really improved in this one respect. In other ways, the laying of new sidewalks and the putting in of new curbs, Ypsilanti stands second to no city of its size in the state of Michigan. Why not, then, add to the beauty of our city and to the delights of living here in the summer months by regularly sprinkling all the streets now in the corporation, the expense to be met by general taxation.

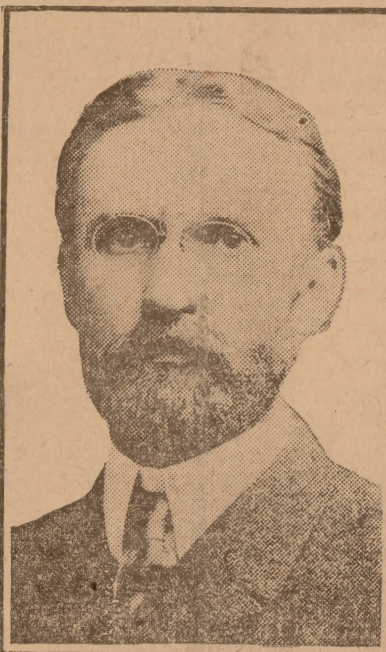

In the first place much emphasis is being placed upon better means for sanitation and the prevention of disease. I know of nothing more detrimental to good health than being obliged to inhale the clouds of ground-up dust which blow into our faces when passing an automobile or rapidly driven carriage. It is generally conceded that dust is one of the greatest enemies of good health. Why should not Ypsilanti, the home of the greatest school for the training of teachers in this part of the United States and one which entertains such a large number of summer students, why should not Ypsilanti, I say, take means to make this one of the most beautiful cities of its size in the United States?

Naturally there will be some people who will object to paying additional taxes for the sake of abating the dust nuisance, but there are enough citizens of the intelligent type who should have their wishes respected. I am sure that if a petition should be presented to the different tax payers of the city that nine out of ten who fully understand the situation would affix their names to the same. Why not, then, have a cleaner, more sanitary and more healthful Ypsilanti through the regular sprinkling of its streets?

A TAX PAYER.
Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Ribbeck of Hillsdale are the parents of a little son, Ardis Gordon Ribbeck, born July 15. Mrs. Ribbeck was before her marriage Miss Purnell De Puy.

NO REPLY FROM WILEY

Pure Food Expert Has Not Yet
Filed Answer to Accusers.

President Taft, Anxious to Dispose of Case, May Pass Upon It Some Time This Week.

Washington, July 18.—The statement was made at the department of agriculture that Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, chief of the bureau of chemistry, had not yet filed with Secretary Wilson his reply to the charges made against him by the personnel committee of the department.

While it is known that President Taft is anxious to dispose of the case as soon as possible, it is said that he has not directed that Secretary Wilson file his recommendation in the premises within any particular time. It is believed, however, that President Taft may pass on the case before the present week is over.

Secretary Wilson has dismissed Floyd W. Robinson, an inspector of drugs in the bureau of chemistry, for "the good of the service." Robinson is said to have been one of Dr. Wiley's "right-hand" men.

Hope for Gates' Recovery.
Paris, July 18.—When seen by your correspondent, Charles G. Gates said that his father, John W. Gates, who is seriously ill here, had shown such improvement during the day, that the family had begun to hope for his ultimate recovery.

QUARANTINE RAISED FOR LAST OF THE SMALLPOX PATIENTS

The quarantine was raised from the last of the Ypsilanti small-pox patients today. The last to recover were the Spears children on Prospect street and Alfred Ziegler of River street. All have entirely recovered and the homes thoroughly fumigated.

A new case is reported at Cherry Hill, however. Mrs. Clark, mother of Ray Clark, has come down with the disease which she contracted from her young son who took the disease from Ray Clark before he was quarantined. The Ray Clark boy had the disease so light that it was not discovered until he had almost recovered, hence no precautions were taken and the mother now has the disease. It is not known how many persons in that vicinity were exposed.

Services Suspended In Dixboro Church

PASTOR IS GRANTED TWO WEEKS
FOR REST—AUGUST
PICNIC PLANNED.

During the next two weeks regular services in the Free church in Superior township will be suspended in order that the pastor, Rev. John E. Mealley, may have a vacation. At the last quarterly conference Rev. Mealley was voted a two weeks' rest and he leaves Dixboro today. He will go to Bay View where a part of his time will be spent at the Elbie Conference to be held there. Services will be resumed in his church the first Sunday in August.

In accordance with the pastor's regular custom he has issued a statement for the congregation showing receipts and expenditures of the church. The June statement shows receipts from Dixboro, $96.19; Free church, $61.64. Disbursements, Dixboro, $96.19; Free church, $61.64, leaving an indebtedness of $104.40 and $57.37 respectively.

Plans are on foot for a picnic to be held some time during the month of August. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Quackenbush, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Koch and Floyd Parker have been appointed a committee to arrange the event.

Pythian Sisters Have A Farewell Meeting

ASSEMBLE IN HONOR OF MRS. F. OSTRANDER AT THE BOUTELL HOME.

At the home of Mrs. Alec Boutell on River street Monday afternoon the Pythian Sisters met to spend the afternoon with Mrs. Foster Ostrander, as she leaves for her new home at South Bend, Indiana, on Sunday. She has been the pianist for Huron Temple for five years and a half, always faithful, and she is wished success in her new home. After visiting for a time, the tables were set out on the lawn and a two-course supper was served by Mesdames Boutell, Seeger, Hodges, and Hayden, consisting of potato salad, sandwiches, olives, radishes, coffee, ice cream and wafers.

At the conclusion of the supper the Most Excellent Chief, Mrs. Clarence Holley, in a few cordial words presented Mrs. Ostrander, on behalf of the Temple, with a silk umbrella and a suit case. There were about twenty Pythian Sisters present.

EDITORS WILL GO UP THE ST. LAWRENCE RIVER

Detroit, July 18.—The 26th annual convention of the National Editorial Association began its sessions Monday in Detroit at the Hotel Pontchartrain. The avowed object of this organization is "to elevate the character and advance the interests of the profession of journalism and promote the welfare of newspaper makers in the United States. The meeting this season is of special importance, as a reorganization of the association is contemplated. It is to be called hereafter the "National Press Association."

At the conclusion of the convention the members, as is their custom, will take a side-trip, going this year down the St. Lawrence into the Cobalt country.

William B. Hatch of Ypsilanti is one of the two Michigan delegates.

NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that fires in streets and alleys of the business and residence district of the city of Ypsilanti are forbidden by the city ordinance and further that any person or persons found willfully kindling fires in such forbidden districts will be duly prosecuted.

SEWER IS RECOMMENDED

Various Other Matters of Minor Importance Are Disposed of at Council Session.

The regular meeting of the Common Council was held Monday evening in the Council Hall. Mayor Towner presided and Aldermen Moore, Cornwell, Stevens, Beal, Thomas, Lewis, Worden, Whitman and McDermott were present. The usual number of petitions and communications came up for consideration.

A petition presented by the property owners on Lincoln street for the construction of a sanitary sewer from the north line of the Klaviter property, south to the line of the street, was referred to the Commissioners of Public Works. On motion of Ald. Beal a petition asking that the barn of Mrs. Barrett, on Pearson street, be moved back 20 feet from the line of the street, in compliance with the city ordinance, was referred to Committee on Streets and Walks.

A number of the property owners on Oakwood avenue have asked that a sidewalk be built on the north side of Congress street from Oakwood avenue to Wallace Boulevard to commerce at Congress street and run north on the east side of Wallace Boulevard to that already built. This petition was referred to the Committee on Streets and Walks on motion of Ald. Stevens.

Twenty residents of Chicago avenue petitioned the city to cause Chicago avenue from the junction of Congress street and Chicago avenue to Normal street to be put into proper condition to receive a coat of oil or some similar coating to abate the dust. The petition on motion of Ald. Beal was referred to the committee on streets and walks.

A petition was granted the Rowina Company to place a gas tank in front of their place of business. The board of Fire Commissioners to whom was referred the application reported favorably.

That a wooden building in the rear of the "Ten Cent Store" has been built in direct violation of the city ordinance was brought before the attention of the Council with the recommendation that it be ordered removed immediately.

The Commissioners of Public Works to whom was referred the matter of constructing a sanitary sewer and cellar drain on South Prospect street recommended that the sewer be constructed. On motion of Ald. Beal the report was tabled.

E. R. Beal and E. C. Cornwell, the committee to whom was referred the claim of DeForrest Ross for $11.50 for damages to his auto top, recommended that the claim be paid. The report was accepted and claim ordered paid.

E. C. Cornwell, J. C. Worden and M. J. Lewis, the committee to whom was referred the matter of purchasing the gravel pit on Factory street, reported that a deed had been secured from the owners and they asked that an order be drawn on the Contingent Fund in favor of Edwin and Evelyn Warren, the grantors, for $600, that being the purchase price. The report was accepted and adopted.

Street Commissioner Lewis was instructed to paint all of the iron railings in the city with good suitable iron paint, to protect them from rust. The street commissioner was also instructed to take immediate steps to provide the city with a suitable rig for street cleaning purposes. He was instructed to report to the council at its next regular meeting.

A resolution that Jerome Allen be employed by the Streets and Walks Committee to survey for necessary walks and curbing now ordered, was adopted.

The assessment roll, for the sewer on Adams street, south, having been reviewed and objections thereto considered, was confirmed.

The resolution regarding the employing of a competent engineer by the city, which was voted down at the last meeting, was adopted by a vote of 7 to 2.

RUINS OF HENNIGAR FOUNDRY NEAR LAKE HURON SHORE

These scenes of devastation were photographed by a press photographer as soon as the fires had cooled so that he could get onto the ground. In numerous sections of the fire swept country it has been a common sight during the past few days to see men who have been rendered practically penniless by the fires, digging in the ruins where their homes formerly stood in search of whatever articles of any value that might have escaped the flames.

Work of rebuilding is well under way in all sections.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

MAHER WEALTHIEST JOCKEY.

American Boy Riding Abroad Is Biggest Winning Horse Pilot.

Although the flat racing season is still young in England, Danny Maher, the wizard, already has a long lead over the other jockeys riding abroad. Danny does not ride as often as some of the other popular boys, such as his greatest rival, Frank Wootton, largely because it is not worth an owner's while to pay his fee for the minor races. Wootton led him in the number of wins last year, but the American has won more races than any other jockey up to date this season, and his percentage is some five points better than that of his nearest rival.

Maher is undoubtedly the most successful jockey in England today. He is probably making more money than any other jockey ever made in England.

As to just how much Maher makes in a season it is impossible to form an estimate that would be worth anything. Aside from his retaining fees and his riding fees, he is in receipt of more presents from owners than any other jockey riding. He has ridden three Derby winners, and it is customary for the owners of horses that win the blue ribbon of the English turf to treat their jockeys handsomely. As much as $25,000 has been given the lucky jockey by a delighted owner, and $20,000 has several times changed hands. Besides his Derby wins, Maher has ridden to victory in almost every big fixture of the English course, some of which have brought in much more than the Derby stake to his employers.

THE LONGEST WALK IN THE WORLD.

Hal Chase and Jimmy Callahan were discussing baseball after the game recently, and attention was called to the fact that the manager of the New York Americans had struck out three times, as had "Ping" Bodie.

"Hal, do you know what is the longest walk in the world?" asked Jimmy.

"It's pretty hard to say," replied Chase.

"Well, it's that walk from the plate to the bench after striking out," declared Callahan, and Chase agreed with him. "That's one time," remarked Chase, "that a ball player doesn't know what to do with his hands or which way to look."

MANY EAGER TO FIGHT PAPKE ON HIS RETURN.

Now that Adolphus Wolgast has removed the last obstacle in the way of his unquestioned claim to the lightweight championship of the world, and has announced a six months' retirement, or until other victims are brought forward to slaughter, the interest of ring followers turns to the doings of one William Papke of Illinois.

Papke is the self styled middleweight king of the universe, and as he is due back soon from a triumphant tour around the world, it is natural to suppose that when he does set foot on his native shores things will begin to hum in the division over which he has become dictator.

There are several good boys in this country who are eager to tilt with Papke for the world's crown, chief among them being Frank Klaus, a bear cat from Pittsburgh; Wild Bob Moha, the original cave man of Milwaukee; Jack Dillon, an Indiana cyclone; Jimmy Clabby, a laughing wizzard who is eager to joust with all 158 pounders, and Johnny Thompson, the Illinois farmer, who vigorously disputes Papke's claim to championship honors and sets forward in support of his contention a twenty round decision that he received over Papke in faroff Australia.

In addition to the foregoing there are a number of husky middleweights who insist on being considered in the running. Eddie McGowan, of Oshkosh, Hugo Kelly, Chicago; Jimmy Gardner and Jack (Twin) Sullivan have championship aspirations and their followings are large ones.

In all probability Papke will not remain idle long after his return home.

HUGH JENNINGS ON BALL PLAYING

Detroit's Leader Declares No Coward Made Success of Game.

TY COBB HIS IDEAL PLAYER.

Says Star Outfielder Is In Love With Sport—Thinks Old Baltimore Team Was Greatest of 'Em All—Tells One on "Germany" Schaefer.

"No coward ever made a success of baseball," says Hugh Jennings. "The first great requisite to success in the game is nerve. I have seen players with the speed of Cobb, with the terrific hitting strength of Crawford, with the grace of Chase, and they did not make good. They lacked the prime essential, stoutness of heart. They wavered when the crisis came. I have seen wizards of the game quiver in the heat of battle and lose their cunning. They didn't last long; they never do."

"To begin with, of course, a man must have the natural ability to hit, field and run. And then comes imagination. Give me the player who can conceive plays, who thinks all the time he is in the game—and who doesn't stop thinking when it is over, but keeps his mind on it and goes over every play of the afternoon, recalling how he made this mistake and how he could have avoided it, and of how he pulled off that play and the reason of it."

"The ball player who doesn't love his game isn't worth his salt. He's getting away with it under false pretenses."

"When I joined the old Baltimore team I was young, at an age perhaps when early impressions stick strongest, but all through my life as a ball player and manager I have always felt that the club handled by Ned Hanlon was the greatest team ever organized. I recall with what enthusiasm Johnny McGraw, Bill Keeler, Wilbur Robinson, Doyle and the rest of us used to study our game under the careful, patient guidance of Ned Hanlon."

"On the trains, in the corridors of the hotels, and often in bed at night, when we should have been sleeping, we were discussing plays, arguing over them and planning for the game of tomorrow. No other subject was ever discussed. It was baseball morning, noon and night."

"Nerve is the first great requirement, and love of the game for its own sake is the second. A man like Cobb, for instance, gets a pretty fair salary. But if you should put Cobb on a team to which no money was paid he would play just as hard, once he donned his uniform. A sample of this is shown in an incident that happened at Bennett park in one of the games a year ago. As I recall it, we were playing New York. We had had a hitting bee and had scored so many runs we were all tired out, and the crowd had grown weary of the constant scoring. It was toward the close of the game and Cobb was on first.

"Step off and let them tag you out, Ty. For heaven's sake, finish it," said Bill Donovan, who was coaching from first. And Ty grinned and stepped from the bag with his hands at his side, awaiting the ball. And right here that tired crowd was electrified by the most sensational base running I had seen that year.

"As the catcher shot the ball to first Ty started. He was caught off the bag and started to zigzag back and forth, with the whole infield chasing him. Back and forth he dodged. Cobb made one of his famous 'dipseydo' dives and was safe at second.

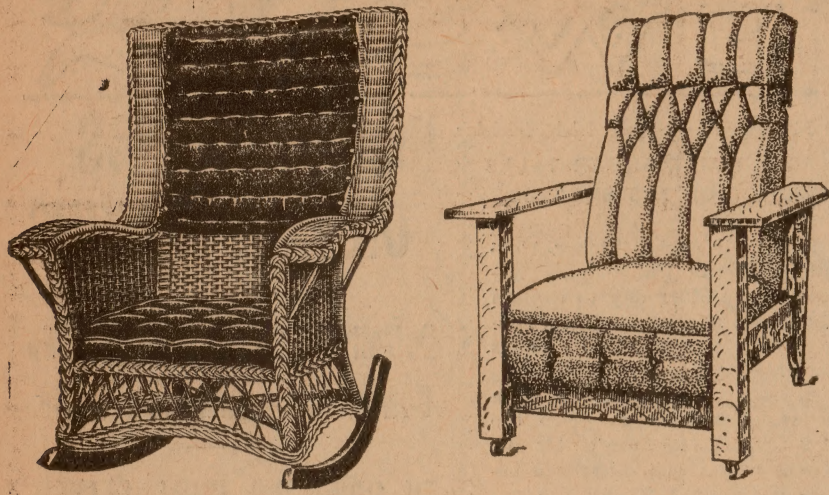

"Why didn't you get out as you agreed to? Ty was asked after the game."

"Well, I started to, all right," said the Georgian, but, gee whiz, after I stood there a second and saw that ball coming I couldn't do it. I just couldn't stand still and let them throw me out."

"His love of the game was so strong that he couldn't stand it. He had to fight back whether he wanted to or not."

"Nerve and love of the game for the game itself are the main things in

U. Of M. Professor Addresses Students

DR. EMERSON DELIVERS INTERESTING LECTURE IN NORMAL HALL ON ETHICS.

Monday evening a lecture was given before the Normal summer school by Dr. L. E. Emerson, of the psychology department of the University of Michigan, and formerly assistant to Prof. William James at Harvard University. It is the first of a series which Dr. Emerson will give on ethical subjects. There was a good attendance of students.

Dr. Emerson's lecture consisted largely of a report of an investigation of the fears experienced by a woman who had come to the hospital in Ann Arbor and had been entered in the psychopathic ward. He undertook to show by the feelings which this woman had felt what were the real origin and nature of such feelings.

WRONG USE OF MEAT FORK COSTS COOK $8.90

That a meat-fork must be used only for strictly narrow culinary purposes was decided in the justice court this morning. Used to vindicate oneself on one's fellow man it comes high—five dollars and costs.

It develops that last night at the Occidental cafe a very Particular Person ordered a dish upon which its arrival did not suit at all. The waiter, who chanced to be Harry Miller, a student, carried the rejected dish back to the kitchen and told the colored cook, Vine Edwards, that the Particular Person wished another portion of the viand cooked in better fashion. Vine said she would not cook it over and that he should take it back to the patron. Miller made the unlucky rejoinder that he wouldn't take orders from a "nigger" and Vine promptly launched a meat-fork at the offender. It struck Miller in the chest just above the heart and inflicted such a wound that a physician had to be called. No untoward consequences are expected unless blood poisoning should set in, and this is not now considered likely. In the justice court this morning the cook was arraigned and settled for five dollars and $3.90 costs.

It is Near at Hand to Hundreds of Ypsilanti Readers.

Don't neglect an aching back. Backache is the kidneys' cry for help.

Neglect hurrying to their aid. Means that urinary troubles follow quickly.

Dire distress, diabetes, Bright's disease.

Mrs. Thomas Barnum, 23 Water St., Ypsilanti, Mich., says: "About a year ago I began to suffer from kidney trouble brought on by a heavy cold. I had such severe pains across the small of my back that I could scarcely stoop or lift and none of the remedies I tried brought me more than temporary relief. Often it was difficult for me to get up from a sitting position on account of sharp twinges through my body. I was also troubled by painful passages of the kidney secretions. Upon using Doan's Kidney Pills, procured from Weinmann-Matthews Co.'s Drug Store, I soon found relief and before long I felt like a different person." (From statement given Dec., 1906.)

NO TROUBLE SINCE.

On Dec. 16, 1908, Mrs. Barnum added: "I still recommend Doan's Kidney Pills highly as I have never had any serious recurrence of kidney trouble."
